

Premier Livestock Classic

General Rules

Aug 1-2, 2026

McLean County Fair – Bloomington, IL

- Open to all youth exhibitors in and out of the state of Illinois that are age 21 as of January 1st, 2026 and younger. (Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goats, and Horse classes are open to exhibitors of ALL ages).
- Health papers must be available for all species.
- Any animal showing signs of illness may be disqualified and removed from the premise.
- Use of performance-enhancing drugs, tranquilizers, or unapproved medications is prohibited.
- Animals must be properly identified for their species (ear tags, tattoos, etc).
- Ethical conduct is expected from all exhibitors, family members, and team supporters. Any unethical behavior will be addressed by show management and proper action will be taken.
- Animals must be clean, well-groomed, and properly fitted, demonstrating the exhibitor's pride in their project and respect for the competition.
- Exhibitors are required to show their own animals, unless prior approval has been granted by the Show Committee due to extenuating circumstances.
- Judge's decision is final and may not be protested.
- Exhibitors must adhere to the rules and regulations specific to each individual species, including any posted updates or clarifications.
- Exhibitors are responsible for their animals and equipment at all times.
- The Premier Livestock Classic Committee and Directors reserve the right to interpret rules, settle disputes, and make final decisions on any conflicts or matters not specifically addressed in these regulations.
- By making entries it is implied you have read the General Rules and the Rules related to the Species that you are showing in and will abide by the rules outlined by the Premier Livestock Classic Committee and cooperate with the Show Directors and McLean County Fair staff in enforcing these rules with family, team supporters, and anyone in attendance at the Premier Livestock Classic.
- For questions and concerns, please contact the McLean County Fair office at 309-663-6497 or email at jrshow@mcleancountyfair.org